KPFK SWITCHBOARD
(818) 985-2711
9 AM to 5 PM, Monday - Friday

In his last several reports, the outgoing General Manager, Tarabu Betserai, noted that a search was underway for his replacement. I come to this post with a sense of awe and dedication. Here's a little of my background.

In the spirit of Pacifica, I was a conscientious objector during the Vietnam era. After two years of alternative service, I went to graduate school at UC Berkeley. At the time, the most important experiences seemed to be occurring outside the classroom. Together with many other students, I was part of the movement that shaped and designed the Department of Ethnic Studies, which continues alive and well to this day. From there, I went on to a career in broadcasting: 10 years in radio and television, all with CBS.

In more recent times, I've learned and come to appreciate both the freedom and the responsibility of long-form programming in community radio. I hope to play a role in keeping this programing tradition relevant and evolving.

From time to time in future reports, I'll communicate my views on KPFK's present and future. For now, let's just say that following an immersion in budget and policies, I'll look to adding a strong component of of local and regional events and issues to KPFK's lineup of involvement and programming. The guiding spirit here appears on those bumper stickers which read "Think Globally, Act Locally." I believe that people are empowered by developing a sense of influence over the forces which confront us in a day-to-day way.

A quick status report on KPFK this month shows a healthy income from several fund raising events. Hector Resendez and Kathy Diaz from our Canto Tropical show on Saturday evenings put on a community event for us at the club called Wings in West Covina. Our thanks go to club owner Edmund Galoostian for hosting the evening; to Hector, Kathy, Gustavo Aragon and Pia Montoya for organizing the affair; to the Hispanic Musicians Association, many of whose members comprised the 20 piece band which played for us; and to our many friends whose word of mouth helped bring people to the club for the evening.

In his last weeks at KPFK, Tarabu Betserai sent out a direct mail letter to which many of you responded. My thanks to you and him for making this transition between managers easy: in other words, without having to face a financial conference from day one. The Winter Fund Drive was also a success as pledges reached the $172,000 level. Thanks again and again to you, our listeners, whose support reflects a a belief in what we do so that we can re-dedicate ourselves to the daily task of free speech radio.

One of the most pleasant experiences on breaking into this job occurred on Monday, April 18. KPFK was visited by a delegation from Radio Beijing, from the Peoples Republic of China. We hope that this visit may one day lead to the possibility of an exchange of programs with the Chinese.

This is a wonderful time to be coming to KPFK. Nineteen eighty-nine is the 40th anniversary of the Pacifica network, which began in Berkeley with KPFA. by the time this Folio arrives, the happy birthday partying will have begun. Moreover, this July KPFK will celebrate our 30th anniversary with our own series of programs and events. Amidst the festivities, a lot of dedicated and hard working staffers and volunteers are laboring away to deliver Pacifica's commitment to your ears. To help out our efforts, I'd like to note that KPFK's News Department needs volunteers to assist in news writing and reporting. If you have the basic skills and interest, please get in touch with News Director Don Rush. Again thanks for your continuing support and, as CBS' Charles Osgood is wont to say, "I'll see you on the radio."

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

May Day Monday May 1 9:30 AM

A two hour treat with Pete Seeger's Sing Along. A great way to celebrate May Day, an original American holiday. Produced by Mario Casetta.

Noon

Robesonia VII -This is the seventh annual tribute to the late singer, actor and activist. We'll feature selections of Paul Robeson's records, speeches, and readings from his book, Here I Stand, Produced by Barbara Sherrill and John Patton.

7:00 PM

Labor Scene's May Day Special-The story of the Haymarket riot. Produced by Gabriella Antolovitch.

CINCO DE MAYO SPECIAL PROGRAMMING

Our special programming for this Mexican holiday is the result of a tremendous co-operative effort sparked by the producers of Enfoque Latino. Check your Folio listings from May 3-6 for details on this exciting commemoration, including programs on immigration reform Mexican folk music, salsa and new song, historical and contemporary Mexican politics & economics, Latin Artists, intervention & self-determination, as well as performances by Son Cuatro, Los Lobos and the National Symphony Orchestra of Mexico.

Memorial Day Monday, May 29

We'll be presenting several special programs for Memorial Day, including Last Letters from Stalingrad, comprising readings of letters from German soldiers surrounded by Russian troops in 1942; The Thursday Lunch Memorial Monday Thing, which is a recording of the Grateful Dead in concert on May 2, 1970; Don't Look for me at the Picture Show, which is a sound picture describing Vietnam and the role of art in uncovering history; The First Bonus March, which is about the World War I veterans who marched on Washington DC to demand promised benefits during the depression; and The Mother, an anti-war play written by Bertolt Brecht and performed by the San Francisco Mime Troupe.

Radio With Vision

Our special series of archival programs in honor of Pacifica Radio's 40th Anniversary continues this month as we observe three other noteworthy anniversaries: the 1970 murders of students at Kent and Jackson State Universities, the 1960 HUAC hearings in San Francisco, and the 1954 Supreme Court decision on Brown vs. The Board of Education. We will also hear about the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee investigation of Pacifica from the people who faced that group (See Midweek, May 3, 10 & 24 at 3:30 PM)

THE REAGAN LEGACY-Daniel Schorr, National Public Radio's senior news analyst, eloquently and with great humor sums up Ronald Reagan's legacy and its impact and influence on the media and George Bush. Reagan, Schorr contends, changed the United States in very fundamental ways. He transformed American politics into theater. Substantive news has given way to sound bites and photo opportunities. Schorr illustrates the differences in style and character between Reagan and Bush with some telling anecdotes. Recorded at the annual meeting of the Wisconson Public Radio Association on February 11, 1989. Produced by David Barsamian.

THE THURSDAY LUNCH MEMORIAL MONDAY THING-The general concensus is that the Grateful Dead have played a very few classic concerts that all little Dead Heads should hear. Today, in honor of Memorial Day, in honor of the Dead Heads' support for the Thursday Lunch program, and just because we felt like it, we offer a complete Grateful Dead show. It was recorded in Binghampton, N.Y., on May 2, 1970. Join us for a classic Dead show, plus untold numbers of twisted and deranged goodies. Produced by Uncle Bob and Uncle Tom. Why? Because we like you!
DON'T LOOK FOR ME AT THE PICTURE SHOW-This is a sound picture of many voices, drawn from 50 hours of tape dealing with Vietnam, art, reconciliation and the next generation. It was produced to illuminate the the issues that remain significant in our memory of Vietnam and the role of art in the uncovering of history.
5:00
THE BONUS SOLDIERS-We present an interview with Bill Wright, last surviving participant in the march of World War I veterans on Washington DC. The bonus soldiers were demanding bonuses, due them for services during the war, which were desperately needed during the depression. Wright talks about the government's failure to pay, and the brutality involved in breaking up the march. Produced in 1974 by Steve Blum. (Pacifica Archive #BC2050)

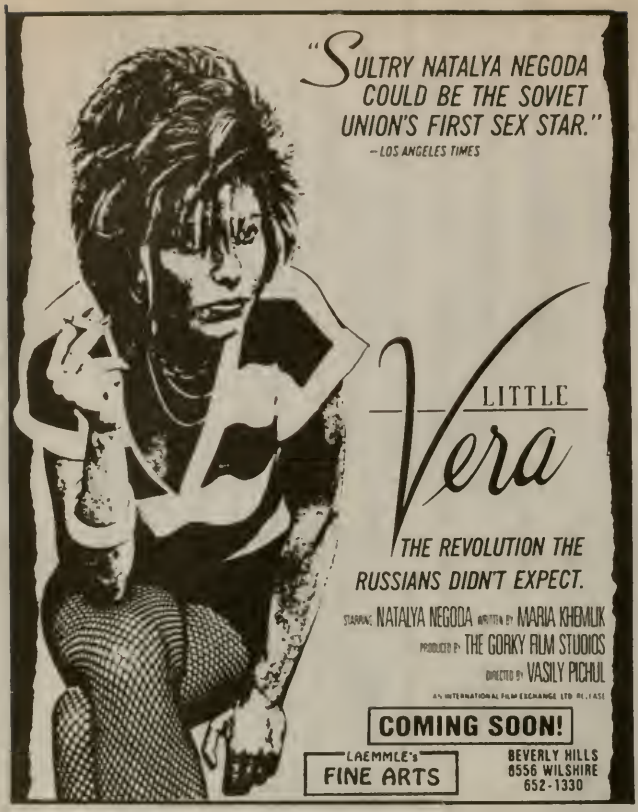
SOMETHING'S HAPPENING-With Roy of Hollywood.



Mozart tuned his own piano.

Why can't you?

Because the adoption of equal temperament, which is the hardest temperament to tune, and the development of high tension scales made piano tuning a job for a professional.
